

COMPUTER ENGINEERING

The Computer Engineering Program prepares individuals in the understanding and application of basic principles, operation, and use of microcomputer system peripheral devices and operating systems.

Core Courses Defined by the Arkansas Career Education:

Computer Diagnostics/Operations/Networking - A program of study which prepares individuals in the understanding and application of basic principles, operation, and use of microcomputer system hardware peripheral devices, and operating system hardware. Acquire skills in understanding the function, construction, installation, and configuration of microcomputer system hardware, electronic components, and peripheral devices.

Concurrent College Credit earned at SAU Tech:

MIS1003 Introduction to Computers
EE2804 Basic Microcomputer Troubleshooting
EE2904 Advanced Microcomputer Troubleshooting
NT1014 Supporting Network Clients

Concurrent credit is applied to the Technical Certificate and AAS Degree in Computer Information Technology at SAU Tech.