ONLINE COURSE INFORMATION SHEET

Course Number: ENGL2213 (ACTS# ENGL2113)

Course Title: World Literature I

Course Description: An introduction to literature; sampling of major masterpieces from the beginning of literature to around AD 1660.

Instructor: Johnie Sue Hall

Instructor Bio:

Johnie Sue Hall: I've been around since the day after the dinosaurs died. When I was born in Fordyce, Arkansas, the doctor left town and was never heard from again. My parents never had to pay for me...well, I think I made them pay anyway (my mom certainly thinks so). I've attended five colleges, including SAU Tech, have three degrees (AAS, BA, MLA), plus 6 hours toward my doctorate, a junior college diploma, and an FAA Private Pilot's License. I'm a captain in the US Air Force Auxiliary Civil Air Patrol, and I love to fly and ride motorcycles. I also love the outdoors and live out in the "country" with my dog Airport (that's where I found her abandoned) and my cat Tonto (also abandoned and WILD).

I've been teaching at SAU Tech for 10 years, so something here keeps me coming back. I hope it will you, too. In my previous life I've been a freelance writer and photographer, a magazine editor, a newspaper writer, a store manager, a grant writer, a PR person, a National Writing Project Fellow, a Silo Fellow, and a National Endowment for the Humanities Fellow. I won a Governor's Award for a documentary film and was featured at the Hot Springs Documentary Festival in a "Meet the Filmmaker" series (that was scary, but fun—kind of like taking an online class, I think).

If I live long enough, I want to finish my doctorate, but my mom worries about my need for excitement with airplanes, boats, motorcycles, and speed (bowhunting is my quiet hobby). Oh, well, it keeps her on her knees—I need the prayer, and she needs the practice, right?

Prerequisite: Composition II (ENGL1123)

Textbook Information: Literature of the Western World, Vol. I, current edition, by Wilke, Hurt (Prentice Hall)

Course Goal: During the course, the student will demonstrate a general knowledge of the major topics covered by scoring a 70% or better on the Unit Exams and other assignments.

Course Objectives: With a cumulative score of 70 percent or better during the course, the student will demonstrate a general knowledge of

1. The major authors of the periods covered during the semester.
2. The major literary works of the periods covered during the semester.
3. The historical context of the authors' lives and times covered during the semester.

On-Campus Requirement / Course Attendance

The final exam must be taken at an approved proctor site. Visit the college website at www.sautech.edu for detailed information.

Students are required to stay in contact with the instructor—weekly if possible.

Modes of Interaction

Teaching methodology includes standard Blackboard methodology. Focus is on textbook reading assignments, research, and Blackboard "Content Pages" online. The student should email the instructor often. Any questions over reading assignments should be addressed to the instructor before the student takes an exam.

Methods of Assessment

Multiple-choice testing in Blackboard. Essay exam testing (full details explained in course syllabus).

Enrollment Procedures

SAU Tech is an open admissions college; however, we have several items that you must provide in order to be admitted:

- Submit application for admission.
- Submit a high school transcript or GED, and official college transcripts from all previously attended colleges (if applicable).
- Provide proof of two immunizations against measles, mumps and rubella.
- Take a placement test. Students enrolling must submit ACT, SAT, ASSET or COMPASS scores. Students can take the ASSET or COMPASS test at SAU Tech.

Students are responsible for all tuition and fees at the time of registration. Students must officially drop by written notice or in person in order to reduce their balance owed. If students never attend class, he/she will still be assessed partial tuition and full student processing fees, unless completely he/she completely withdraws during the 100% refund period.

In order for a student to drop a class, he/she must complete a drop form or send written request to his/her advisor. A $5 drop fee is assessed for drops that take place after the registration period ends.
